

MICHAEL O'MARA BOOKS

The Wicked Wit of Oscar Wilde

Compiled by Maria Leach

- More than a hundred years after his death, Wilde's wit continues to dazzle
- The Wicked Wit of Oscar Wilde celebrates his finest witticisms, aphorisms and remarks
- Published for the first time in paperback, it features hundreds of razor-sharp quotations
- The collection is beautifully illustrated in black-and-white, including illustrations by Wilde's contemporary and friend Aubrey Beardsley - the most controversial artist of the Art Nouveau era
- This accessible anthology, elegantly organised into themes, is ideal for dipping into
- Sections include:
 - Age Before Beauty
 - Relative Values
 - Some Useful Professions
 - Sin and Cynicism

“I like men who have a future, and women who have a past”

- THE PICTURE OF DORIAN GRAY
