- Includes practical memory aids covering music, mathematics, time and the calendar, historical facts, spelling and many more
- Wonderful for dipping into, improving your general knowledge and sharing with kids today who don't have the benefit of such foolproof old-fashioned tricks and tips!

Do you remember ...

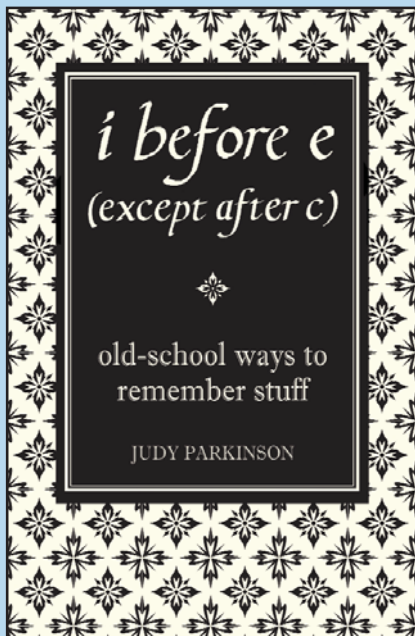

Richard Of York Gave Battle In Vain
- the order of the colours of the rainbow

We can remind ourselves of The Ten Commandments with this cheeky thought:
One idle damn Sunday, Dad killed cheating thief and lied to cover it.

That is: One God, No idols, Don't swear, Keep the Sabbath, Honour your father, Don't kill, Don't commit adultery, Don't steal, Don't bear false witness, Don't covet.
