The Book Club Bible

The Definitive Guide That Every Book Club Member Needs

Foreword by Lionel Shriver

"The Book Club Bible is like that one trustworthy friend upon whose taste you can pretty much rely" – Lionel Shriver

- The first comprehensive literature guide aimed specifically at book groups
- There are over 50,000 book clubs in the UK

Confessions of a book club member . . .

Every book club member knows the agonies of choosing a book. Will everyone hate it? Is it too long? What will I say about it? Will I sound dim or – worse – pretentious if I suggest it? What other book would complement it well for discussion? Fear no more, help is at hand!

- The Book Club Bible is packed with 100 recommended titles, from classics to recent bestsellers and little-known gems, concentrating on 20th and 21st century fiction
- Each entry includes a precis of the book (without spoilers!), historical background, brief author biography, insightful discussion points, suggestions for complementary books, honest opinions from real readers and the all important page count!
- Also includes top tens: from classic British and foreign novels, to non-fiction, war books, sci-fi, gay literature, horror and more

Media Opportunities

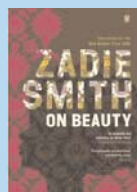

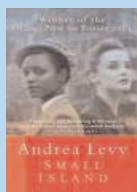

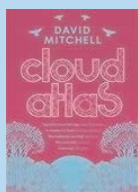

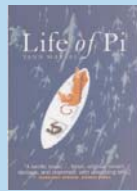

- Extract
- 'Author interview': although the book has been put together by a number of writers, the author of the introduction and various entries (a book club member, whose idea the book was) is available for print and broadcast interviews
- Discussion feature: do you agree with our selections? What other books would you include?
- Reader discount offers
