MICHAEL O'MARA BOOKS

The Book With No Name By Anonymous

For many centuries the library of lawless hellhole Santa Mondega, in South America, has held a gruesome secret. There is on its shelves a nameless book, by an anonymous author, and everyone who has ever read it . . . is dead.

At last - the book that caused a storm on the internet in its previous, self-published incarnation, is available on general release.

From Amazon:

'Laugh out loud funny at times and downright dark and scary at others' ★★★★★

'simply more exciting than any one book deserves to be' ★★★★★

'a sweaty-palmed edgy thriller that has some very funny moments' ★★★★★

'damn near impossible to put down' ★★★★★

With a cast of characters including sexy amnesiac Jessica, bare-knuckle fighter Rodeo Rex, crime overlord El Santino, two ass-kicking Hubal monks, a host of the undead, and a detective from the Department of Supernatural Investigations, this is a tale of adventure shot through with black humour. Throw in a mysterious blue jewel, the party to end all parties - literally - and the mysterious, murderous Bourbon Kid and it's gonna get bloody . .
