MICHAEL O'MARA BOOKS

Roger's best-selling autobiography is published in paperback in time for Fathers' Day 2009

My Word is My Bond

The Autobiography

Roger Moore

'the funniest film memoir since David Niven's
The Moon's A Balloon' – The Daily Mail

'stuffed with showbiz anecdotes' – The Sun

'so engaging... so genuine. This is a delightful book, crammed with anecdotes' – The Mail on Sunday

- Roger tells his story from his wartime childhood in South London to his seven decades in the entertainment business
- Includes fabulous photographs from Roger's private collection
- As Simon Templar in The Saint, Lord Brett Sinclair in The Persuaders and, of course, James Bond, Roger is the quintessential suave British hero
- He shares his recollections of working and playing with a galaxy of stars including Audrey Hepburn, Elizabeth Taylor, Sean Connery, Michael Caine, Grace Kelly, Frank Sinatra, Noël Coward, Gregory Peck, David Niven, Elvis Presley, Joan Collins and the Spice Girls
- Roger also shares his experiences working world-wide for UNICEF and the great impact this has had on him

Media Opportunities
