

BUSTER BOOKS PRESS RELEASE

The Girls' Book

How To Be The Best At Everything

- The Boys' Book, shown above, sold 200,000 copies.
- It reached number 24 in the official UK top 50, number 3 in the official UK children's top 20, and number 4 in the Amazon chart at the end of 2006.

• Hot on the heels of the best-selling The Boys' Book comes The Girls' Book: How To Be The Best At Everything.

Not to be out-done by the boys, the time has come for girls to be the best at everything, too. Essential skills include:

How to float a friend.

How to train a dog to shake hands.

How to survive a zombie attack.

How to turn water into lemonade.

How to make your own lip gloss.

How to win a staring contest ... and lots more!

- Sections available for extract and quizzes.
- Copies available for competition prizes.
- A perfect gift, with its retro-style cloth finish and silver foil.
- Author, Juliana Foster, available for interview.
- Why not ask kids to road-test the skills and activities?

Pub date: 8th February 2007 • only £7.99 • Hardback • ISBN 978-1-905158-79-9

For further information please contact
Sarah Sandland on 020 7819 5923, email: sarah.sandland@mombooks.com