THE LIFE OF A YORKSHIRE VET

by JULIAN NORTON

Published to coincide with Julian's new book
A Yorkshire Vet Through the Seasons
on 14th September 2017
£8.99, in paperback by Michael O'Mara Books

Based at the Skeldale Veterinary Centre in North Yorkshire, the modern, relocated practice featured in the classic stories of James Herriot, this is a warm and evocative memoir from a young vet whose love for his vocation shines through on every page.

From alpacas to exotic pigs, puppies to rabbits, Julian Norton has treated them all and his book, packed with stories about his loveable patients, will prove a firm favourite with all animal lovers. Dealing with unexpected exotic pets – and handling excitable humans too – Julian has seen all sides of the veterinary world and writes about it all with humour and affection. Just as happy calving a cow, treating a dehydrated chameleon or tending to the overgrown teeth of a rabbit, his passion for his work shines through on every page, as does his love for Yorkshire.

Julian Norton also stars in Channel 5's fly-on-the-wall documentary series The Yorkshire Vet, one of the channel's highest rated shows (with series four set to return this autumn). Warm, evocative, always compassionate and often funny, Julian's tales bring to life the world of the working vet and the highs and lows he and his colleagues face on a daily basis.

Julian Norton qualified as a veterinary surgeon from Cambridge Veterinary School in 1996 and has spent most of his working life in his beloved North Yorkshire.
