

THE NORTH POLE WORKSHOP

Christmas is approaching fast. At Santa's Workshop everyone is busy making presents. Soon it will be Christmas Eve, when Santa will load up his sleigh and deliver gifts to children around the world. But Santa's elves have other ideas.

Just days before Christmas, ten elves have disappeared. Without them, the chaotic workshop will never finish making all the presents in time. Can you help Santa find the ten elves hidden in each picture, as well as the bonus items listed in the Spotter's Checklists at the back of the book? If you can, you might just save Christmas.

Those pesky
elves are always up to something!

THE MISSING ELVES

Look closely at the ten elves that have gone missing. Then, get the search underway. Santa can also be found in each scene.

A Wintry Village

Santa has tracked down the elves to an icy, English village. The residents are outside braving the cold and having fun in the snow.

Frosty the elf has started a big snowball fight. Jingle is singing along to Christmas carols. Santa is searching hard.

On Safari

The elves have snuck away from Santa again and gone on a sunny safari. They've never seen so many noisy and colourful animals.

Santa thought elves were naughty, but that was before he met the cheeky monkeys. It turns out that elephants and rhinos are even stinkier than his reindeer.

On Your Marks ...

... get set. Go, go, go!

The elves have made a pitstop. It's time for some high-octane go-karting and thrilling, four-wheeled fun.

Dash is in her element – she can't wait to get behind the wheel and start whizzing round the track. Santa better be quick if he wants to catch up with the speedy little racers.

Christmas Market Crush

The elves are dashing round a busy, German Christmas market. Shoppers are jostling close together, buying last-minute gifts and trying the delicious mulled drinks.

Jolly thinks the market is perfect for stocking fillers and twinkly decorations. Santa wishes the elves would just stay put for a moment.

Surf Up

The elves are used to snow at Christmas, not sand, but that doesn't stop them from playing on the beach in Australia.

Santa's feeling grumpy - he much prefers the cold. Once he finds Mop, his stylist, he's going to demand a pair of red shorts for the hot weather.
