Are Coconuts More Dangerous Than Sharks? Mind-Blowing Myths, Muddles and Misconceptions

Guy Campbell (Illustrated By Paul Moran)

Keynote

A captivating collection of misunderstandings, mistakes and misconceptions, Are Coconuts More Dangerous Than Sharks? reveals the reality behind myths that have been mixed up with truth over the years.

Description

A captivating collection of misunderstandings, mistakes and misconceptions, Are Coconuts More Dangerous Than Sharks? reveals the reality behind myths that have been mixed up with truth over the years.

If you really thought that Mount Everest is the world's tallest mountain, or that camels store water in their humps, this book will bring you back down to Earth with a bump.

Filled with fiendishly fact-busting entries that expel myths, explode muddles and eliminate misconceptions, so children can delight in being right.

Part of the fascinating new series 'Buster's Actually-Factually Books', a collection that reveals the reality behind just a few of the myths that have been mixed up with truth over the years.
