Description

Containing over 45 of the most important questions you have ever asked (and some quite silly ones, too), Do Elephants Ever Forget? is an utterly random collection of fiendishly fascinating and perplexing ideas.

Have you ever wondered why yawns are so contagious? If there is life on other planets? If your eyeballs would pop out when sneezing with your eyes open? If so, this book is for you.

Some answers are surprising. Some are amazing. Some will positively blow your mind.

Part of the fascinating new series 'Buster's Actually-Factually Books', a collection that reveals the reality behind just a few of the myths that have been mixed up with truth over the years.

Sales Points

- Featuring more than 45 of the most important questions kids have ever asked (and some quite silly ones too)
- Examples include: 'What would happen if a meteorite hit the Earth?', 'How deep will the oceans be if the ice caps melt?', 'Would my eyeballs pop out if I sneezed with my eyes open?' and 'Why can't I tickle myself?'
- Do Elephants Ever Forget? will have curious kids impressing friends, parents and teachers alike
- This book is part of the fascinating new series 'Buster's Actually Factually Books', a collection that is perfect for kids that want to learn more
- Quirky full colour illustrations from Paul Moran, illustrator of the bestselling Where's the Unicorn?
