

Drawing As Easy As ABC Step-by-Step Pictures to Create and Colour

John Bigwood (Illustrated By John Bigwood)

Keynote

Using capital letters and some lower case letters as building blocks, this book shows children how to draw a range of cute and quirky animals, from sassy llamas and quirky chameleons, to cuddly koalas and fabulous flamingos.

Description

The first shapes children learn to draw with confidence are letters, but drawing animals can be more challenging.

Using capital letters and some lower case letters as building blocks, this book shows children how to draw a range of cute and quirky animals, from sassy llamas and quirky chameleons, to cuddly koalas and fabulous flamingos.

Each creature has six simple step-by-step pictures using colour-coded lines and simple instructions. A dotted grid paper acts as an extra guide for sizes and shapes.

Sales Points

- Start with a letter and follow the step-by-step pictures to create a masterpiece
- Simple colour-coded instructions and dotted paper make it even easier for kids to get to grips with
- Plenty of space inside to practise and perfect new skills
- Featuring over 35 creatures, from a gorilla to a flamingo, the pictures are charming and pleasing
- Suitable for 7+
