BUSTER BOOKS
CATALOGUE 2019
It’s been a busy year at Buster Books HQ, and we’re so excited and proud to share our 2019 list with you. As always, we have set out to create titles that will spark imagination, satisfy curious minds and be enjoyed by children everywhere.

Our picture book list launches with a ROAR in the spring with the arrival of The Dinosaur Department Store – a stomping story that will appeal to any dino-loving, adventurous reader.

Kids can become eco-warriors with Guardians of the Planet, produced in partnership with ClientEarth, and The Big Green Activity Book. These interactive titles explore environmental issues and provide a springboard for action. Beyond planet Earth, readers can join Dr Maggie Aderin-Pocock on a captivating journey through space in her Grand Tour of the Solar System.

Rise Up shares the empowering stories of ordinary girls and boys from around the world. And over in the animal kingdom, The Book of Animal Superheroes tells true-life tales of extraordinary animals.

The Magical Unicorn Society throws open its doors once again, with The Golden Unicorn and Other Stories and we satisfy the keenest of puzzle masters with the brand new Bright Sparks series and additions to the bestselling Brain Games for Clever Kids.

We hope you enjoy our 2019 list – dive in and have fun!
Eliza Jane isn’t your average child. Instead of a cute, fluffy bunny, she has her heart firmly set on a prehistoric pet. Join Eliza Jane and her parents on a marvellous magical tour of their local dinosaur department store. From huge, stomping sauropods stretching their necks to a pair of loved-up Ankylosaurs called Maud and Frank, there are plenty of amazing dinosaurs for Eliza Jane to choose from. But this wild child is hatching a fantastic plan of her own...

With the rich and vivid art of bestselling illustrator Richard Merritt and a witty rhyming text by picture-book author Lily Murray, this truly wild picture book will appeal to dino-loving, adventurous children everywhere.

Lily Murray grew up in the wilds of snowy nowhere, spending much of her time talking to animals and making up stories. She has continued to do this in her adult life, and now writes both fiction and non-fiction books for children. Her titles for Frances Lincoln Children’s Books include Hello, Hot Dog!, Once Upon a Magic Book and The People Awards. Other recent titles include Dinosaurium for Big Picture Press and the bestselling No Worries and Disney Classics Series for Studio Press. Follow Lily on Instagram and Twitter @lilymurraybooks.

Richard Merritt has been an illustrator for 15 years after graduating from Central Saint Martin's college of Art and Kingston University. His intricately detailed illustrations have become a staple of the bestselling Art Therapy and Menagerie series, and has led to television appearances. The Dinosaur Department Store is his first picture book.
MAYBE THE MOON

Maybe the Moon tells the story of Eric, a little boy who loves life in his forest home with his animal friends for company. When he moves to the city, he sets about searching for happiness in a strange new environment.

The book features Frances Ives’ beautiful illustrations and a gentle rhyming refrain that will enchant children and adults alike. The jacketed-hardback edition is an exquisite production and both formats feature a twinkling silver-foil finish on the moon.

1 2 3 ANTEATER STUCK UP A TREE

A CURIOUS COUNTING BOOK

On every page of this cute, characterful counting book, children are encouraged to spot and count all of the animals that turn up to help an anteater down to safety.

With rhyming text and a sweet narrative that builds to a playful ending, this is a fun and quirky way to introduce kids to the numbers 1 to 10 and the amazing animal kingdom.

MY LITTLE BOOK OF BIG FREEDOMS

THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACT IN PICTURES

We all want a good life, to have fun and to be safe. For this to happen, we need to look after each other and stand up for basic human rights that we often take for granted. Through stunning illustrations, Chris Riddell brings 16 different freedoms to life, offering a wonderful way to explore important values with young children.

In partnership with Amnesty International this little book shows why our human rights are so important – they help to keep us safe. Every day.

Join Dr Maggie Aderin-Pocock on an epic journey through the Solar System – visiting planets, moons and asteroids, and travelling to places where no human has been before.

Along the way, readers can discover how we could live on Mars, learn about the hunt for a mysterious super-Earth, climb the tallest mountain in the Solar System and much, much more. From spotting solar flares on the Sun to exploring objects at the edge of the icy Oort Cloud, this fun, action-packed book leaves no question unanswered and no meteorite unturned.

With striking illustrations by Chelen Écija.

Dr Maggie Aderin-Pocock (MBE) is a space scientist, TV presenter and author, whose passion is presenting science to a general audience.

To share her love of science, Maggie set up her own company, Science Innovation Ltd. Through this, she conducts ‘Tours of the Universe’, introducing school children and adults to the wonders of space. She has given these talks to over 60,000 people across the globe (30,000 of whom have been school children in the UK). Maggie is the well-known presenter of The Sky At Night (BBC Four).
William balanced on top of the tower that he had built from wood and bamboo. It was a strange-looking contraption. It had an old bicycle wheel attached to the top, a large fan alongside it, and various other machine parts. A gust of wind blew, and the fan blades began spinning around. William held up a light bulb that was attached to the machinery. The bulb flickered and died. Then it lit up brightly. “He’s made light!” shouted the crowd, who had gathered below to watch this crazy boy. They were right. William had made electricity. But how?

A few months before, 14-year-old William had been sitting in the library, trying not to think about how hungry he was. This wasn’t an everyday kind of hunger – this was starvation. The maize harvest had failed in Malawi that year and there was hardly anything to eat. People were starving, selling anything they could just to buy a few grains. Nobody had food or much money. William went to the library to learn because his family could not afford to pay his school fees.

A book called Using Energy caught William’s eye. He’d always been interested in how things worked and had spent hours fixing old radios. On the book’s cover was a picture of tall, grey towers with large spinning blades. William was intrigued. He flipped through the pages to find out more. These machines were called wind turbines and they used the energy from wind to make power. This was exciting! If William had a windmill,

INTRODUCTION

LOM ART returns for 2019 with a shelf-full of inspiring titles, showcasing the brightest stars of illustration and featuring some of the most original artists around.

We present art history as you’ve never seen it before with A History of Art in 21 Cats. We’ve given watercolour painting the LOM ART treatment with our creative new title Paint Play, and for younger art enthusiasts there’s Pop Out Art, a fun, interactive book that combines model-making with fascinating arty facts and exciting activities.

With a hotly-anticipated new release from LOM ART favourite, Kerby Rosanes, and an original title from Lulu Mayo, Behind Every Great Woman is a Great Cat, 2019 looks set to be another stellar year for LOM ART.

PAINT PLAY

21 EASY WATERCOLOUR TECHNIQUES TO EXPLORE

Inspiring, original and fun, Paint Play invites readers to throw away the rule book, pick up their paintbrushes and experiment with a range of unusual art techniques using watercolours. From adding texture using salt to making colourful mono-prints and painting cool safari patterns, there are 21 exciting techniques to explore.

Gorgeous illustrations are accompanied by easy-to-follow instructions in a playful sketchbook style.

Katie Rose Johnston is an artist, creative teacher and graduate of the Royal College of Art. Her aim is to rid watercolour painting of its stuffy reputation and inspire others with happy, childlike marks, bold prints and colourful patterns.

She has exhibited at the V&A, The Royal Academy and Somerset House and runs workshops in painting and illustration. Paint Play is her first book.
Ideal for art enthusiasts and cat lovers alike, Nia Gould showcases the most important moments in the history of art through a cast of quirkily illustrated cats.

From Byzantine art to the Young British Artists, each creative cat is accompanied by an overview of the movement it represents plus a breakdown of the cat’s key features and the artists they apply to.

With a healthy dose of humour and a generous helping of cattitude, A History of Art in 21 Cats offers a unique take on art history.

Nia Gould is an artist, designer, cat-person and graduate of Falmouth University. Working from her studio in Devon she combines her two passions, art and cats, in a series of works featuring felines posing as the world’s most famous artists. A History of Art in 21 Cats is her first book.
BEHIND EVERY GREAT WOMAN IS A GREAT CAT

This compendium of cat lovers showcases over 30 inspirational women, including Florence Nightingale, Taylor Swift and Rosa Luxemburg, who all have one thing in common – their affection towards cats.

Discover the uplifting tales of these cat-loving women, who dared to change and inspire the world alongside their feline friends. Featuring artists, pioneers, writers, humanitarians and many more.

This book celebrates the cat as muse, companion, colleague and emotional support as it explodes the myth of the 'cat lady'. Features a foiled cover.

THE VAN GOGH ACTIVITY BOOK

DISCOVER AND TRY HIS TECHNIQUES FOR YOURSELF

Vincent van Gogh is one of the most famous artists in history. This creative activity book captures the essence of his distinctive style and provides fun, arty activities so readers can try out his techniques for themselves.

Stunning illustrations by Grace Helmer are accompanied by fascinating text, and a fun fold-out timeline features reproductions of Van Gogh's original paintings and sets his work in context.

THE MODERN ART ACTIVITY BOOK

DRAW, PAINT AND COLOUR YOUR WAY THROUGH ART HISTORY

From the Impressionists to Pop Art and beyond, this arty activity book introduces children to the major movements in modern art. Brimming with beautiful illustrations by Ashley Le Quere and accessible text, the reader can learn about different illustrators and artwork styles, before trying out the techniques for themselves. With a fun fold-out timeline.
HOW TO DRAW FOR THE ARTISTICALLY ANXIOUS

Celebrate smudges, embrace wonky lines, erase the stress and discover that drawing is fun. There are over 40 colourful watercolour templates waiting to be transformed into quirky animals and cool characters. A selection of fun features to copy, alongside hilarious prompts, will inspire even the most anxious of artists to embrace drawing and celebrate the perfectly imperfect.

PAPER WORLD

STYLISH PAPER MODELS TO POP-OUT AND CREATE

Paper modelling has been given a cool and colourful makeover by innovative paper artist Helen Friel. From a party piñata to a tropical toucan, an amazing armadillo to a delicious doughnut, these 3D models make the perfect addition to a stylish space.

Templates can simply be pressed out, folded and glued, to create ten super-stylish statement models. Plus, each model comes with a beautifully-designed paper set to help them feel at home.

Helen Friel is a paper engineer based in Sussex. Since graduating from Central Saint Martins in 2009, she has been creating work in paper for both editorial and advertising clients. Her popular workshops attract a trend-conscious crowd who are drawn by her contemporary designs, sophisticated colour palette and couldn’t-be-simpler assembly method. Clients include Etsy, Grazia, Harrods Magazine, Harvard Business Review, Ryanair, The Savoy Hotel, Stylist, Tatler, Ted Baker, TIME, Vanity Fair and Vogue.
WHAT TO DRAW AND HOW TO DRAW IT FOR KIDS

Budding young artists will love learning to draw a whole range of animals, toys and other objects using simple shapes and lines. Each picture is broken down into six easy-to-follow steps. With illustrations by Charlotte Pepper.

FREEDOM TO EXPRESS YOURSELF

An Inspiration Notebook

Everyone has the right to freedom of expression. Through inspirational words and thought-provoking illustrations, this striking notebook explores themes of human rights and freedom. There’s plenty of space for inspired readers to express themselves however they like.

Published in partnership with Amnesty International, the notebook features artwork from over 30 artists from around the world, including Sir Quentin Blake, David Shrigley, Jean Jullien, Meera Lee Patel and Chris Riddell.
COLOURMORPHIA

CELEBRATING KERBY ROSANES’ COLOURING CHALLENGES

A new twist on the bestselling ‘Morphia’ series from Kerby Rosanes, featuring artwork from some of his most talented fans.

With a full-colour section displaying completed artworks from a collection of talented colourists and a selection of Kerby’s best-loved black-and-white line work for the reader to colour themselves, this book is a celebration of everything Kerby. Take inspiration and learn new techniques to bring your own images to life.
