

Publication date Thursday, February 02, 2017

Price £7.99

ISBN-13 9781782438243

Binding Paperback

Format 198 x 129 mm

Extent 160 pages

Word Count

Illustrations Black-and-white line drawings

Territorial Rights World

Grandmother's Wisdom Good, Old-Fashioned Advice Handed Down Through the Ages

Lee Faber

Keynote

There's no one quite like Grandma, particularly when it comes to offering sage advice. From housekeeping hints to tried-and-tested recipes, Grandmother's Wisdom is packed full of timeless teachings.

Description

There's no one quite like Grandma, particularly when it comes to offering sage advice. From housekeeping hints to tried-and-tested recipes, Grandmother's Wisdom is packed full of timeless teachings, including how to:

- * banish moths from your clothes
- * cook the perfect omelette
- * re-pot plants
- * save money
- * keep salad and fruit fresh
- * cure common ailments

Filled to the brim with hints, tips and recommendations, this comforting collection of grandmotherly advice is the perfect handbook for modern life.

Sales Points

- We all know that grandmother knows best and now Grandmother's Wisdom pulls together generations of collected wisdom into one handy and attractive package
- Covering a huge range of topics, from medicinal advice and home remedies to cooking, cleaning and gardening tips
- A wonderful trip down memory lane and a useful gift, packed full of tried and tested advice that actually works

Author Biography

Lee Faber has five grandchildren. She was born in New York and lived there for 30 years before moving to the UK. She has worked in publishing, printing, modelling and journalism. Her other books include Raising Goats, Aloe Vera, Juices and Smoothies and Healthy Oils.

Michael O'Mara.

www.mombooks.com

