

I'm Going to School Activity Book A Fun, Fill-In Book All About Starting School Chris Dickason (Illustrated By Chris Dickason)

Keynote

The perfect companion for children starting school for the first time, I'm Going to School Activity Book will help children prepare for the excitement of school life and banish the anxieties of the classroom.

Description

The perfect companion for children starting school for the first time, I'm Going to School Activity Book will help children prepare for the excitement of school life and banish the anxieties of the classroom.

Each page will take a child through a different aspect of the school day, letting them know just what to expect with humorous artwork and reassuring, fun activities.

The activities are simple enough for children to complete on their own, but I'm Going to School also provides an opportunity for parents to share in the school experience of their child and create something to be treasured and looked back on in years to come.

Author Biography

Chris grew up somewhere between the canals of south-west France, the Swiss mountains and England's Essex estuary. The youngest of four children (the little brother role he still embraces in adulthood), Chris spent the majority of his education drawing on his friends' schoolbooks and was brought up on a diet of Tom & Jerry, Swiss chocolates, cheap fizzy pop and French sunshine.

Chris' irreverent sense of humour was born from years as both a mild mannered doodler and angry burger flipper. Taking inspiration as much from Henri Matisse as he does The Muppets as well as odd bits of packaging collected from foreign supermarkets Chris' work has been described as charming and visually striking with a sharp graphic style. His illustrations are populated with rambunctious characters that are a cleverly crafted mix of an uncomplicated line style, wonky perspectives and conspicuous colour choices.
