LOM Art

Add a pop of colour to your world with stylish paper creations by innovative paper engineer, Helen Friel.

Explore the wonders of paper and create quirky models for work or home. Simply pop-out, fold and stick together each of the ten, beautifully designed 3D models, then populate your desk with them or admire on your mantelpiece. From armadillos to succulents, and doughnuts to piñatas, this cool collection of projects has been designed to be made by everyone, whatever their level of skill. You can also create fun paper backdrops to make your models feel at home, from a tropical paradise to a spectacular cityscape.

This paper-modelling equivalent of painting by numbers will help brighten up any space you put them in.

Helen Friel is a paper artist based in London. Since graduating from Central Saint Martins in 2009 she has been creating work in paper for both editorial and advertising clients. Her popular workshops attract a trend-conscious crowd who are drawn by her stylish designs, sophisticated colour palette and couldn't-be-simpler assembly method. She has worked on a host of pioneering paper campaigns for clients from Etsy to Ted Baker, as well as editorial projects for Vogue, Stylist, Vanity Fair and Elle Decoration. Her work has been featured in books Papercut, Papercraft and Papercraft 2.
