Zeena Shah is a Chelsea School of Art graduate who, inspired by her love of textiles, launched her own business 'Zeena'; in 2010. Her collection of hand silk screen printed and handmade home accessories are all crafted in her East London studio and sold internationally.

Zeena creates home accessories that bring colour and fun to your home. She is a familiar face on TV having appeared on Kirstie's Vintage Home, The Apprentice and 60 Minute Makeover, as well as featuring regularly in both the craft and women's lifestyle press, including Red, Country Living, Mollie Makes, Homes & Gardens, House Beautiful, Elle Decoration and more.

Zeena also runs a successful programme of craft workshops for adults and children and has worked with the V&A Museum, Great Ormond Street Hospital, The National Portrait Gallery, The National Maritime Museum, The Make Lounge, Oak Studio, Drink, Shop & Do and more.
