On Boxing day 2004, Rob, Paul, Mattie and Rosie Forkan tragically lost their parents in the Boxing Day Tsunami that devastated Sri Lanka. Aged from 8 to 17, they subsequently faced a harrowing and solitary 200km trek across the decimated country to get home to safety.

Almost a decade later, the two eldest brothers, Rob and Paul, went on to create the multinational brand Gandys flip flops and the charitable foundation Orphans for Orphans, using their profits to open a children's home in Sri Lanka.

This is a heartbreaking, engaging but ultimately uplifting journey from the streets of Sri Lanka to the boardrooms of London, Downing Street and beyond as told by two inspirational survivors.

Updated with all the latest news on the Orphans for Orphans children's home and a brand new reflective epilogue.
